CREATING A FAIRER WORLD

What does the UK Trade?

The UK trades a lot of goods and services.

Some of the goods the UK exports are:

scrap iron, whisky, tartan kilts, medicines, aircraft parts, cars, computers, oil and gas.

Some of the goods the UK imports are:

coffee beans, bananas, medicines, aircraft parts, cars, computers, oil and gas.

Trade through History

Trade has changed a lot through history. This is partly due to developments in transportation but also due to the changing relationships of the UK with other countries. In Tudor times, the UK traded with the Americas, whereas in Victorian times, the UK mainly traded with other countries who were in the British Empire.

Globalisation

More and more goods travel around the world before being sold in a shop. Sometimes, parts of a product are made in several different countries before being assembled in another one.

How does Fair Trade Work?

There are lots of steps in the trade process but people involved are not always paid equally or fairly. Fair trade exists to make sure that people are not exploited. Look out for the fair trade logo when buying things so that you know that people have been paid fairly for their work.
